Teachers of grade 1 to 5 attended a workshop on 'Child's Psychology' conducted by Ms. Sharmila on April 1st, 2023. The workshop focused on how to handle kids with patience, how to make them feel safe and emotionally strong. She also explained five types of disciplines, which include authoritarian, democratic, permissive, uninvolved and helicopter discipline. She gave a few inputs on how to make classroom joyful; suggested to create incidents that give positive productivity; importance of appreciation and focus on word 'RELAX' (a story about an anxious old man). The session went smoothly and Primary Headmistress Ms.K.C Srivani concluded the session by thanking the host for taking up the wonderful session.

Behavior Modification-Effective Discipline
BEHAVIOURAL CHALLENGES	BEHAVIOURAL MANAGEMENT
Annoying Classroom Interactions	A group contract with the students.
Argumentative student	Explore what led him to that behavior.
Boastful attention seeking student	Give the student a position of responsibility in the classroom and encourage him to set a good example for others.
Calling out in class	Discuss your expectations with the class. Make up rules and consequences at the very beginning of the school year.
Class clown	Try to channel his/her sense of humor into something productive like creating a class play or dramatic skit.
Demanding child	Give the child a special job to show that you care about and have confidence in him. Make this child the Captain or leader whenever possible. Include him in games that nourish his confidence.
