

The Book “Toilet Tales -Hyderabad “released

The students of DDMS P OBUL REDDY authored it.

Pakhi Agarwal, Vedant Nath, Chitahari Vaishnav Reddy and Varun Chandra students of Class XII are a part of Nexteam-Loo café -the youth team behind the book -THE TOILET TALES

A culmination of stories of 28 individuals from across Hyderabad who turned toilet entrepreneurs from street hawkers by taking up the responsibility of sanitation, hygiene and sustainability of the Public Washrooms, was released by Shri K.T. Rama Rao, Minister of Municipal Administration and Urban Development of Telangana at InkWash3.0 on the 6th May 2022.

“Toilet Tales” aims to spread awareness to bring a larger Youth community come forward and help educate and train local warriors about sanitation, hygiene and sustainability and inspire more youngsters to solve global challenges.

The team has patented a system to convert Faeces to Charcoal, built a Washroom Management system and is sensitising people to use cryptocurrency for Loo café across the country to work for WASH mission.

Alongside, the young team has created a start-up called nexteen.org, a top 6 T- Hub and has received various grants. It is an ecosystem for Gen Z with Olympic level training programs, to turn students into Path Breaking solvers.

The students were lauded for their brilliant efforts by the Chairman Sri S. V. Rao, DDMS (AMS) POREA, Principal Ms Rekha Rao, Vice Principal Sr. Secondary Ms Vinitha Anil, Vice Principal Secondary Ms. Nagaveena and Headmistress Primary Ms SriVani and Headmistress Pre- Primary Ms VijayDurga.

Link to the book: - <https://bit.ly/ToiletTales>
