HONOURING THE TEACHING COMMUNITY

04 September, 2019

“A teacher affects eternity, he can never tell where his influence stops”, these words of Henry Adams qualify a teacher for the role he or she plays in guiding students towards wisdom and knowledge. With this in mind, DDMS (AMS) P Obul Reddy School celebrated the occasion of Teachers’ Day on 4th of Sept.2019, on its premises.

The celebration was held with students expressing their gratitude and affection for their teachers. The students enthralled the audience with songs, dances and skit. The event was held in two areas. The primary students enthusiastically participated in the cultural programmes. The students of the middle and senior school put up a great show to honour the teachers.

The teachers participated in several games like Volley ball, Cricket and Tambola. They seemed to be reliving their childhood days. The entire programme was conducted by the students. Overall it was an enriching day for the teachers.
