

YUGEN SUMMIT

“Making Diplomacy Matter” a moniker which came alive during the YUGEN SUMMIT held on the 26th and 27th of August at DDMS (AMS) P Obul Reddy Public School. The conference boasted of 300 delegates spread amongst 5 different committees.

The GBC or the Global Business Conference had the agenda of discussing the future of businesses in the 21st century with emphasis on artificial intelligence and sustainable finance.

The NATO or the North American Treaty Organisation had the freeze date 23rd February, 2022 the time where Ukrainian-Russian tensions were at the highest. DISEC or the Disarmament and International Security Council was announced with the agenda on the deliberations on the implications of the South China Sea dispute on international peace.

The prestigious Lok Sabha included legislative members with the agenda of deliberating upon the status quo of democracy in India with the light of religious extremism, naxalism, communalism and democratic protests.

The last but not the least the esteemed International Press consisted of IP reporters and photographers who represented different international news agencies holding their bias and publishing reports, conducting press conferences, clicking pictures, and acting as a vehicle for journalism in this summit.

The event was a grand success. The two day conference has kindled the flame of diplomacy in many, and shed light on the unseen world of policy making.
