

RESONATING WITH REVERENCE AND PATRIOTISM

The hallowed precincts of P. Obul Reddy Public School came alive with patriotic fervour and solemn pride, as the institution celebrated the 79th Independence Day on 15th August, 2025 with unmatched grandeur. The occasion commenced with Guard of Honour escorting them, warmly welcoming the distinguished guests. The Chief Guest of the day was the school's proud class XII Topper for the session 2024–25, Master Aryan Bansal, symbolizing youthful achievement and inspiration. He was accompanied by eminent dignitaries—Sri S. V. Rao, Chairman of DDMS P. Obul Reddy Educational Academy; Sri E. Narasimha Rao, Hon. Secretary; respected Principal Ms. K. Vinitha; Vice-Principals; and Heads of Departments. Their entry set a tone of dignity and respect.

The ceremonial hoisting of the National Flag, followed by the resonant notes of the National Anthem, invoked deep emotions of patriotism. A gracious welcome address by the Principal was succeeded by address from the Chairman sir and Secretary sir, who underlined the sacrifices of countless heroes. The Guest of Honour, Aryan Bansal, shared his inspiring journey, urging peers to seize every opportunity. This year's celebration paid tribute to the unsung poets of the freedom struggle, whose words awakened national consciousness. Cultural splendour unfolded through multilingual speeches, melodious patriotic songs, the dance Vishwa Bharti, and a vibrant aerobics display. The memorable event concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks by Head Mistress, Middle School, Ms. Radhika, followed by the distribution of snacks.

Patriotism in Melody and Motion: Middle Schoolers Illuminate Independence Day with Zeal

On 13th August 2025, the auditorium of P. Obul Reddy Public School resonated with youthful pride as the Middle School celebrated Independence Day with dignity and splendour. The programme began with a soulful school prayer by the choir, followed by the Thought of the Day and an article on “What Independence Means to Us”, which beautifully reflected the hopes of young citizens.

The cultural events enthralled the audience with vibrant performances. Class VI students sang the spirited song “Jai Ho Bharat Maa”, while Class VII presented a graceful dance to “Sujalam Suphalaam”. A melodious Telugu group song, “Palu Mathaala Bhaashala”, highlighted India’s linguistic unity, followed by dynamic dances on “Lehraado” and “Hum India Waale”.

A powerful speech by V. Rama Saathvik Kumar on “Honouring Freedom – Inspiring Future” inspired all present. The programme concluded with the National Anthem and an encouraging address by Head Mistress middle school, Ms.S. Radhika, leaving the gathering enriched with pride and patriotic fervour.
