PRE-PRIMARY
CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION on 21/11/2025

On 21/11/25 Pre Primary celebrated Children's Day with great enthusiasm and dedication. As teachers, we organised a fun filled shows for our students that fostered creativity, teamwork and joy. It was time to know the aim behind celebrating the day and vision of CHCHA NEHRU, our nation celebrates the day to fulfil his ambition.

Principal Ms. K. Vinitha and Head mistress Ms. K. Vijaya Durga have addressed the children and emphasised the importance of children's rights and insisted them to continue to keep themselves happy.

Teachers have conveyed a message about the good manners through skits and children enjoyed their dance. One of them dressed up as chacha NEHRU and surprised the children. Children were given delicacies as a sweet memory and a goodie takeaway.

It was a heartwarming to see students enjoying themselves and taking ownership of their learning.

The celebration helped strengthen the bond between teachers and students.

We plan to continue organising similar events that promote holistic development and happiness among our students.
