ART INTEGRATION : WORKSHOP

“The capacity to learn is a gift; the ability to learn is a skill; the willingness to learn is a choice.”

Art Integration workshop for teachers was conducted on November 21st, for teachers of classes I to X. The workshop aimed at enriching the teachers’ talents with new ideas and skills that could help everychild to participate enthusiastically in the classroom activities. Eminent personality- Ms Ramalakshmi Das , who has has over 18 yrs of experience in K-12 Space and who has conducted more than 2,500 workshops across the country, was the resource person.

Ms Das’s forte has been to train teachers in various aspects of teaching and general classroom activities as well as empowering the teachers in Subject Specific Areas to improve learning levels.

Hands on methods were focussed upon to empower students to learn, to strengthen problem- solving, creativity, and To stimulate the child’s inner talent and skill and to learn the subject in a more effective manner. Art integration is mapped to Multiple Intelligence Theory. It is based on Bloom’s Taxonomy, which highlights six major categories -- Knowledge, Comprehension, Application, Analysis, Synthesis and Evaluation.

The workshop had a great impact on all the teachers. It would help them to plan their lessons to facilitate in the overall development of the child.
